Discover the palace complex of the Karageorgevich dynasty in Dedinje consisting of the Royal and the White Palaces. The Royal Palace was built during the period from 1924-1929 by order of King Aleksandar I as the official royal residence. Today it is the home of the heir to the throne, Aleksandar II and his family. It is a large impressive villa of white stone in the Serbian-Byzantine style. The Palace is surrounded by pergolas, terraced gardens, fish ponds, a pavilion and a bandstand offering a magnificent view. Discover the different rooms of the Palace which are luxuriously decorated in the Baroque and Renaissance style. The White Palace was commissioned by the command of King Alexander I as the residence for his three sons. It was built from 1934 to 1937 and designed by the architect Aleksandar Đorđević. The ground floor of this Classical building contains a Ceremonial Hall and a suite of Drawing rooms decorated in Louis XV and XVI style with Venetian chandeliers. It also houses the Palace Library, which used to contain 35,000 books, and the Ceremonial Dining Room furnished in Chippendale style.
