Sunday, 6 Sep 2015 → 09:30 – 12:30

A perfect way to discover the hidden secrets of Belgrade and its long and vivid history is to explore the underground. The tour will take you to a selection of underground places on different “layers” of Belgrade that various cultures built on top of ramparts of the conquered city. The underground of Belgrade contains numerous caves and caverns, which people carved in limestone rocks, hundreds of underground tunnels built in the past 300 years by the Austrians, Serbs and Germans, countless buried wells and walled rivers. Visit the Roman Hall, where you find the foundation of the tower of the main gate of the Roman fortress. Continue to the Belgrade Fortress which was built in the 18th century and presents the heritage of the Austrian time. The Roman Well is its true attraction. Move on to an army bunker from the time of the Cold War and hear stories about Tito's, former president of Yugoslavia, political games and spy secrets. Touch the walls of the Big Gunpowder Warehouse, a cave which the Austrians built as part of the fortress which served as the defense of Christian Europe against the Turkish Empire. At the end of the tour you will enter a wine cellar dating back to the time of the liberation of Serbia from Turkey in the 19th century. Here a wine tasting will be arranged to round up this exciting journey through Belgrade's past.
