Discover Vojvodina province near Belgrade. First you will visit the city Sremski Karlovci at the foot of the National Park Fruska Gora on the bank of the Danube River. The city appears like a museum representing the Serbian culture of the 18th and 19th century. Despite all the tumultuous events that occurred here, the cultural and historical monuments which are very important for the history of the Serbian people and Europe, have been preserved. Since ancient times Sremski Karlovci has been a centre of Serbian culture and spirituality. The first Serbian high school and the first Serbian Orthodox Seminary were established here. The written document “Peace of Karlovac” was signed in 1699 between the Holy Alliance (Austria, Poland and Venice) and Turkey and in 1848 the Serbian Vojvodina has been proclaimed. Sremski Karlovci is also well-known for its famous Karlovac wine, which was once served in the Vienna court and throughout Europe. Enjoy a wine tasting in a wine cellar. After a short drive you will visit the city of Novi Sad. Here you find the beautiful Petrovaradin Fortress - The Gibraltar on the Danube River. Stroll round the well preserved Petrovaradin Fortress which is the second largest fortress in Europe with a stunning view over the city of Novi Sad and the river.
